

24th ENTO annual conference

Healthy Public Organizations: innovative tools for citizen engagement and collaborative policy making in local governments

November 3, 2011 in Tbilisi, Georgia

Goal of the conference:

The responsibility of local governments includes both - quality public service provision and building functioning institution guaranteeing sustainable development. Good leadership and professional staff at present do not ensure effectiveness of local government in the future unless the organizational values, culture and procedures are at place. The existence of continuous dialogue and collaboration with major stakeholders is essential for quality policy making. The conference aims to bring together local government officials, practitioners, trainers and academia to discuss needs for creation of organizational integrity to deliver on local government promises.
